The Honorable
The Secretary of the Interior

Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Administrator
General Services Administration
Washington, D. C. 20405

Gentlemen:

The Board of Supervisors of Fairfax County, at its meeting on December 1, 1971, requested that I inquire as to whether or not the matter of apportionment of the Bureau of Public Roads' property at Langley had been settled, and expressed the hope that this had been done to the satisfaction of everyone concerned, and that the Central Intelligence Agency could now remove their fences as rapidly as possible so that these fields may be utilized by the public as parkland.

Respectfully,

George J. Kelley, Jr.
County Executive
